WIRES TO GRAVESEND DOWN

Time of Imprisonment at the Track Extended One Hour.

GRAVESEND RACE TRACE, May 23. -Added t the other many offenses against popular rights bleh have been committed since the opening of the season at this track the wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company were down and said to have been out to-day, to more news to the press and the pool rooms.

The representatives of the Western Unio Company, while the appearances indicate that the wires have been cut, are only willing to say that they are down, and that within one mile of their temporary office outside the

The limit of imprisonment at the Brooklyn track was extended an hour to-day. The p'ecards announcing this fact are now printed in red ink and one cannot fall to notice them Pinkerton's men were placed to enforce the orders. Notices stating that exits could be found on the Boulevard side of the track were niso posted con-picuously.

President Dwyer was very inJignant to-day over what he terms "misrepresentation," He declared that if these "misrepresentations are kept up he will bar newspaper men from the track.

He says he is perfectly independent of the newspapers and under no obligation to them.

The weather at the track to day was cool and raw, and those who left overcosts and wraps at home sat and snivered all afternoon. The programme was an excellent one, but there was a general disappointment bec use Tenny was not to meet Kingston in the St. James Botel Stakes at a mile and a quarter. The first race brought together a good field Patrimony was a hot favorite. He was left at the post in his last start, and yet finished third, very strong and fresh. The second choice was Spinalong, and the Lady Longfellow colt was a strong third

None of the others save McCormick were bucked very heavily. The winner turned up in Hellgate, who was at long odds. Spinalong beat the favorite to the place.

The second race found Kon a hot favorite at odds on. The pinngers played him to get even on the reverses of the first race.

Banquet was a strong second choice and the others were at long odds, with favoring fields preferred. Eon won bandily from Banquet. Text was third.
The third race offered many good things. Picknicker probably carried the most meney, for it went on him in hundreds. Mey Dei Rey, Bermuda and Dr. Hasbrouck were all heavily Eon won bandliy from Banquet.

said that the wires were down within one mile of their temporary office, and that linemen had been sent out to locate the break.

"What aution will be taken by the Compone, I do not know," said Mr. Mitchell, of Suid. Humstoness office.

"We have to report further than that the gires are down, but we incline to the belief that they were cut."
